"Terminal 4 at JFK is not only keeping up with the demands of an ever-growing travel industry, but exceeding it by offering a first rate experience at one of the most active airport terminals in the world," said Gert-Jan de Graaff, President and CEO of JFKIAT – the company that manages Terminal 4 at John F. Kennedy Airport. "Terminal 4 offers an unparalleled selection of retail options from luxury boutiques to discount accessories and convenience stores. Additional store opening this summer included Juicy Couture, Guess and Flat Iron Coffee. The Food and Beverage offerings are a unique cross-section of some of the best establishments by celebrated and award-winning chefs. All of these extra amenities have the consumer's needs in mind and make for a pleasant travel experience during a record breaking summer. These record numbers are fueled by the expansion in flights by world class carriers like Delta, China Southern and Emirates as well as by carriers serving New York for this first time – Thomas Cook and Volaris."

Terminal 4 also offers travelers a host of first-rate services and amenities including seven premium airline lounges, three spas, four large, private art collections and four religious chapel's for passengers to utilize while waiting for their flight. The terminal provides passengers convenient access to transportation with an indoor taxi stand and the airports only AirTrain station located inside a terminal building.
